

STOP THE HATE, STOP THE VIOLENCE: BUILD A CULTURE OF PEACE

Gandhi Jayanti Gandhi's 149th Birthday Celebration at Fresno State

Three Main Events

First two events held on Wednesday, October 3, 2018

1. At Table Mountain Rancheria Reading Room, 3rd Floor, Henry Madden Library

All are welcomed

6:00 pm Registration and Refreshments

6:30 pm Forum for Inclusion, Respect and Equity Community Keynote Presentation by:
Sally Kohn, Author of "The Opposite of Hate"
(In collaboration with President's Commission on Human Relations and Equity)

2. Peace Garden at Fresno State

7:30 pm Community celebration includes:

- Invocation
- Proclamation by Dr. Joseph I. Castro, President, Fresno State
- Garlanding ceremony. Joined by Sally Kohn and other dignitaries
- Raging Grannies
- Pledge against Hate and Violence
- Candlelight vigil for World Peace
- Remarks by students of Pax 110 class
- Acknowledgements and adjournment

Please bring flowers and candles

Free Admission
To all events

3. Photo Exhibition on Life of Gandhi 1st floor of the Henry Madden Library starting October 1 through October 7, 2018

For more information contact: Dr. Kapoor at 559.435.2212,
Cross Cultural and Gender Center at Fresno State 559.278.4435, Trabajadores de la Raza, at Fresno State
559.278.6851, Peace and Conflict Studies Program, Fresno State 559.278.2621, Indian Students Club
559.862.9663 or 319.331.3040

Supported by: President's Commission on Human Relations and Equity, ASI, Gandhi Memorial Education Fund, United Hindu Coalition of Central California, USU Productions

Persons with disabilities needing special accommodations please contact Dr. Kapoor (info noted above)
Fresno State is a 100 percent smoke-free vapor-free campus

Parking code: 629930