State Senator Anna Caballero Launches Re-election Campaign

State Senator Anna Caballero today announced that she will run for re-election in the Central Valley Senate District 14, and issued the following statement:

"I have represented Merced, Madera and Fresno counties since my election to the California State Senate in 2018. In 2022, I will ask the voters to allow me the honor of continuing to represent them in the California State Senate."

"I have worked in close partnership with community and neighborhood leaders and elected officials from Merced, Madera and Fresno Counties and I look forward to continuing to support their efforts to improve the lives of their families and communities. Together we have tackled issues that rural and agricultural communities face, such as high speed internet access, quality affordable health care, support for small businesses, fighting for adequate school funding, access to safe drinking water, and funding for UC Merced/Fresno State Medical Schools"

Senator Caballero noted the opportunity to continue work to help her district respond to and deal with the Covid-19 pandemic:

"We showed resilience and real cooperation in responding to the Covid-19 pandemic and now we are working to keep schools, businesses and communities safely open and thriving. We learned a lot about how strong our communities are, but we also learned about many needs of our community that need to be addressed. I look forward to helping us come back even stronger"

Anna Caballero was first elected to the California State Senate in 2018, after previously serving 6 years in the California Assembly. She was the highest-ranking Latina in Governor Jerry Brown's cabinet from 2011-2015, serving as Secretary of the California Business Consumer Services and Housing Agency.
